This wide variety of flavors creates beautifully balanced cocktails, that is why liqueurs have been so popular since the days of Louis XIV. This unusual liqueur—packed with rich but not too sweet oranges, African, Asian, Mediterranean, and American spices, and a little alcohol—comes in a beautiful bottle reminiscent of a Moroccan street vendor. Siphon 2 oz into your favorite cocktail: classic martini, negroni, margarita, caipirinha, or any other, to make a delectable Moroccan cocktail. Enjoy a chilled spritz or a refreshing summer evening with your favorite people. This invention relates to foldable table structures. As exemplified in U.S. Pat. Nos. 2,633,041 and 2,712,352, it is known to provide table structures of the above type with a retractable table top and table leg assembly. The table top is normally folded against the table structure and is supported on a table leg by a telescoping locking mechanism. In the structure illustrated in the aforesaid patents, the table is provided with folding legs which are pivotally connected to the rear portion of the table top. In such structure, the top is supported on one side by a foldable leg so that the leg cannot be closed when the top is in its folded or storage position.

Because of this, the table must be opened and then closed to permit storage of the top when the f30f4ceada
