Click on 'File' and then 'New'. Select 'Other' in the right side. Select the file from your computer. Now click on 'ok'. This will create a new Autocad file. Method 2: Open 'textEdit'. Type the following to your file 'ADX_KEY=' And then press Return key. This will create the key inside your file. Method 3: First open your project. Now go to 'resources' window. There you will find a folder called 'ADX_KEY'. Copy the key inside this folder. This will work on every new project you open. If you have any doubt please let me know. This key will only work on Windows version. It will not work for Mac. How to add subtitles in iTunes There are numerous iTunes optimization options available, and some of them might be very useful for you. For example, you can optimize your media library, where you can filter out duplicates, contacts, photos and videos, as well as repair or reorganize library. Here is how to add subtitles to your iTunes library. How to add subtitles to iTunes Open iTunes Click on the Files tab and select your library In the upper left corner of iTunes you will see the icon of an empty circle and a plus sign. Click on it Select Subtitles and choose where to add the subtitles to your video files Add subtitles to videos If you already added subtitles to your media files, then all you have to do is select your iTunes library and press Add to add a new subtitle track. Now you can choose where to add the subtitles and what language to use for the subtitles. Choose language and type a subtitle in the text field that appears Repeat the operation for every movie or video in your library Update subtitles for videos and movies in iTunes Once you imported the subtitles to your iTunes, you can check for the latest version of the subtitles in iTunes. If you find out that the subtitles are not updated with your latest version of the movie, then open the file and update the subtitles.!(edlnbmedj74558-0001){
