Monday, September 13, 2014 As the clock winds down on the league season, it is time to look back and see how the other 31 teams did. It has been a very disappointing season and the only reason that our team did not go into free fall was the fact that we had a terrific break-out season last year and it is difficult to go into a new season with expectations. Here are a few observations about this past season. The Oakland Athletics, It was a tough season for the A's as they lost 95 games to their way to the World Series. Their most notable transaction this past offseason was trading away reigning Cy Young Award winner and MVP Josh Donaldson to the Toronto Blue Jays. They now have the #4 overall pick in the draft and, after scouting a bit, drafted the Tigers' Taylor Ward. They also added OF Dustin Fowler, who came over from the Reds. With the last pick in the draft, they were fortunate to get the Rangers' Jurickson Profar. They have a pretty good farm system. d0c515b9f4
